

Darius Thomas, BS

Data Evidence Specialist

Darius Thomas joined Vestige in September of 2021 as a Data Evidence Specialist. As a DES, he is responsible for acquiring Electronically Stored Information (ESI) on digital devices from clients, opposing parties, and 3rd parties. The data is then preserved and/or prepared utilizing forensically-sound procedures for case analysis. Specialists are also responsible for safekeeping, managing and returning physical evidence belonging to clients, opposing side and/or third parties.

Darius hails from Cincinnati, OH where he attended Walnut Hills High School. He went on to graduate cum laude and was an Honor Scholar from Eastern Kentucky University in Richmond, KY. Here he earned a Bachelor of Science in Digital Forensics and Cybersecurity in 2021. Through his studies, he has working knowledge of multiple digital forensic tools used to conduct investigations and analysis of digital media including: FTK, Cellebrite UFED, Magnet Axion Examiner, and Autopsy Sleuth Kit. Darius was bestowed the College of Science Dean's Award in Fall 2019 and President's Award in 2020. He brings a year of Digital Forensic experience having worked as Digital Forensics Lab Intern for Kentucky State Police Electronic Crime Branch; and as a Cybersecurity Contractor for a Kentucky cyber firm.
